

RAISING CLARITY

to cultivate abundance in noble causes, people and organizations

FUNDRAISING AS SELF-DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

Workshop Offered by RAISING CLARITY at the 2014 Money for Our Movements Biennial Conference of the Grassroots Institute for Fundraising Training (GIFT)

If you had to design a self-development program, it might look very much like the crucible you step into everyday working for social justice, whether as staff, volunteer, or Board.

This workshop helps you work with the challenges you experience in your work (paid or un-) to deepen your self-development and your service, using a very simple "applied mindfulness" practice, visualization, and examples developed by participants to practice together.

- Skill level: All
- Audience: All

Bio: Beth Raps created RAISING CLARITY as safe space for a certain brand of practical wisdom in activism, fundraising, nonprofit/solopreneurial development, and subtler forms of world-changing, out of 30 years fundraising and organizing, a few years moneycoaching, interspiritual wisdom practices, and a life saved by all of the above.
